Aprio announces combination with Administrivia

Atlanta-based Aprio has combined with outsourced accounting firm, Administrivia, making this the seventh strategic combination for the firm since 2013.

Aprio announced on 8 October that it had combined with Atlanta-based outsourced accounting firm, Administrivia, which is led by Adam Rimes.

The combination strategically expands the Aprio's current outsourced accounting offering through Aprio Cloud to include managed accounting solutions for businesses of all sizes and industries.

Administrivia will be now known as Managed Accounting Solutions, providing both onsite and remote support for businesses looking to outsource part or all of their accounting and finance function on a wide range of accounting platforms to best serve the needs of any client.

Bruce Phillips, Managing Director and Partner of Aprio Outsourced Accounting Services, commented:

"With the launch of Managed Accounting Solutions, we have expanded our outsourced accounting offering to now have a solution for businesses of all sizes, making running any type of business easier. We're thrilled to have Adam and the rest of the Administrivia team joining Aprio. We're excited for what's next."

Now appointed as Partner and Director of Managed Accounting Solutions, Adam Rimes added:

"We are excited to be joining the Aprio team. As part of Aprio, we can now offer clients best-in-class technologies to streamline their financial processes, and have it visualised in easy to understand dashboards to drive faster, better decision-making."

On behalf of all member firms, Morison KSi would like to congratulate Adam, Bruce and all involved in this successful combination!
